Name: Bob Greenberg

Office: Grand County Council

District: #3

E-mail address: bobgmoab@citlink.net

Website: none

Age: 64

Occupation: Retired mental health administrator

Residence: Moab

Years at residence: 32

Qualifications:

I moved to Moab in 1976. I have 30+ years of public service in Grand County. I managed our regional behavioral health center, a $5 million company with 100+ employees in southeastern Utah.

A strong economy that matches our values and sense of community is our best future. County government must reflect these values. I will continue to work for county government that is open and fair: that spends taxpayer money carefully and wisely.

I am pro-development for a healthy community. I sponsored the "buy local" county policy: serve as chair of Airport Board and a member of the county Travel Council. I bring business sense and experience to the Council.

The public's interest always comes first. I believe that a councilperson must pay attention to all views-not just those of a few. That fairness and openness must extend to hiring and I oppose public officials hiring relatives. I enjoy working with people.

Being effective, getting things done is important to me. As Co-chair of the Atlas Tailings Steering Committee, I helped get a federal grant for county oversight of the Atlas cleanup. I am proud that we now have Council meeting packets in the library before every meeting.
